Ladner carries beat one

By DAN BARBER

Former beat one supervisor Harlan Dean lost his bid to unseat incumbent Jerry Ladner Tuesday night by 82 votes.

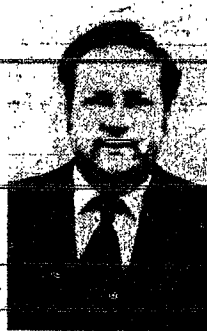

It was the second time Dean and Ladner had faced each other in a runoff for the beat one seat in the past four years. Ladner successfully won the office from C. A. Russ, Jr. in 1971 after he and Dean survived the first primary.

Dean, who served seven years as supervisor of beat one from 1960 to 1967 before running unsuccessfully for reelection in 1967 and 1971, had campaigned vigorously against Ladner's record in office since announcing his candidacy in April.

Dean announced his candidacy after successfully winning a federal lawsuit in April which threw elections in the county back to a beat system instead of countywide.

Dean had led Ladner slightly after the first primary, collecting 471 votes to 420 for Ladner to lead an eight-man field, but failed to gain significantly in two Arlington boxes in the second primary which cost him the election. Unofficial results showed Ladner with 877 votes to 795 votes for Dean. In the balloting, Dean found his strongest support in the three Pearlinton boxes where he outdistanced Ladner 111 votes to 99. They were, however, the only boxes that gave Dean an edge over Ladner.

In Ansley, Ladner picked up 34 votes to 9 for Dean. In Lakeshore the two candidates battled almost evenly with Ladner being the slight favorite picking up 118 votes compared to 112 for Dean.

After the tabulation of the Clermont Harbor vote, only 14 votes separated the lead between the two men, with 63 votes going to Ladner and 34 to Dean, but Arlington which had proven to be a stronghold for Ladner in the first primary carried him to victory again. In Arlington's two boxes, Dean picked up only 57 ballots compared to 143 for Ladner.

In the beat three race incumbent

Oscar Peterson won a second term on the strength of a 300 vote margin over challenger Roger Dale Ladner. Peterson received 1085 votes to 711 for Ladner.

Peterson campaigned largely on his record in office to handily defeat Ladner in his first political venture.

In beat four, garage owner Sam Perniciaro and retired civil engineer Hugo Haas split the 1744 votes cast in that race along fairly expected lines. Perniciaro garnered 88 more votes than Haas to win the election, collecting 916 votes to 828 for Haas.

The drawing power of the two candidates was split into the northern and southern halves of the beat with Haas overwhelming Perniciaro in the three Kiln boxes and Catibola precinct and Perniciaro collecting the majority of votes in all five South Bay boxes.

The larger vote in the South Bay boxes apparently sufficed to carry Perniciaro.

Tuesday's runoff guarantees that the Hancock board will carry virtually the same face for the next four years as it has now, with Perniciaro being the only change on the board after Jan. 1.

Beat five supervisor Jimmy Traverca and beat two supervisor Dolph Kellar earlier claimed first primary victories along with Chancery Clerk John Rutherford, who acts as board treasurer.

Newly reelected Beat 1 Supervisor Jerry Ladner and wife Mary flash victory smiles Tuesday night after unofficial but complete returns showed Ladner edging out challenger Harlan S. Dean with 877 votes to 795.

Victory smiles

Ladner reelected to fourth term

Sheriff Sylvan Ladner gained a substantial victory over challenger Earl "Buck" Ladner in Tuesday's Democratic runoff to coast to an unprecedented fourth term of office.

The young challenger who forsook his position as state representative to run against the incumbent sheriff, conceded to his opponent approximately two-thirds of the way through the count.

Unofficial totals showed Sheriff Sylvan Ladner had recaptured the Democratic nomination by a wide margin. At final count the incumbent had 5108 votes to Earl "Buck" Ladner's 3350.

The challenger carried only eight of the 48 precincts in the county including the three Kiln precincts, Caesar, Dedaux, Penton and one box in Edwardsville. All other precincts went to the incumbent by wide margins.

"I knew that it would be a hard fight when we started," Earl Ladner said in an emotional concession speech. "It is going to be hard any time you go up against a man who has so much respect from the community."

Ladner, who was a deputy sheriff for four years before his election to the state legislature, said, "A lot of people have asked me why I left the legislature to run for sheriff, and the answer is that my first desire has always been to work in law enforcement."

The young Ladner, who is no relation to the sheriff, promised to continue working for Hancock County and said that he hoped Ladner would consider some of the law enforcement suggestions he brought out in his campaign.

In his victory address Tuesday night Sheriff Sylvan Ladner thanked his supporters for reelecting him to a fourth term. Ladner was first elected to the office in 1956 and was returned to office in 1964 and in 1972.

In the coroner's race, deputy sheriff Carl Banderet claimed victory over his opponent Mrs. Nina Green Garcia of Waveland.

Banderet carried 29 precincts giving him a total of 4429 votes to Mrs. Green's 3876. Mrs. Green, the only female candidate in the local contests, showed her greatest strength in the communities of Lakeshore, Clermont Harbor, Caesar, Sander, Dedaux, Edwardsville and Penton. Banderet carried all of the precincts in Bay St. Louis and Waveland, Mrs. Green's home community.

Banderet is a retired Veterans Administration employee and is presently employed as a deputy sheriff. Mrs. Garcia is the owner of a florist shop and a former emergency room nurse.

Randolph wins superintendent

In the runoff for the Democratic nomination for county superintendent of education, Terrell Randolph edged out the victory over his opponent, Bill D. Sills by less than 100 votes.

Incumbent superintendent E. J. McCarty was eliminated from the contest in the first primary, receiving barely a vote in the runoff.

Randolph, a teacher from Sills, and Sills, the principal of North Bay Elementary, by approximately 120 votes in the first primary.

In Tuesday's race the two candidates ran evenly throughout the race, each carrying 15 precincts. Randolph carried all but one box in beat one and Sills showed his greatest strength in Kiln and beat two communities.

Finch grabs Demo nod

By DAVID PIERSON

Cliff Finch, a Batesville attorney who described himself as "the workingman's candidate," soundly defeated William Winter in the second Democratic primary for governor Tuesday by a margin of more than 100,000 votes.

In unofficial returns, Finch garnered 57.7 percent of the state's vote to unseat Winter, the first primary leader. Finch got 435,302 votes to Winter's 319,063. Winter led a six-man field in the first primary but could not hold counties considered vital to his election, despite his heavy campaigning in those areas.

Finch in his campaign, pledged to provide "a job for every Mississippian," a claim which Winter said would cost the state billions of dollars. Finch's campaign financing was also questioned at one point during the second primary campaign. One newspaper account attempted to link a Finch campaign aide to Carlos Marcello, a reputed underworld figure in New Orleans.

The prime indicator that it was not to be Winter's night came with the Harrison County returns, a county that was considered a Winter stronghold. Finch outpolled Winter in Harrison 15,708 to 13,851.

In Hancock County, Winter gathered 4,334 to Finch's 3,828.

Finch will meet Republican Gil Carmichael and possibly several independents in the November general election.

State commissioner Evelyn Gandy advanced still closer to her goal of becoming the state's first lady lieutenant governor when she pushed aside Brad Dye with 52.5 percent of the vote. In unofficial returns, Miss Gandy received 387,954 votes to Dye's 351,252.

Miss Gandy will now face the Republican candidate Laurel mayor Bill Patrick, the mayor of Laurel in the November 4 general election.

W. H. (Shag) Pyron triumphed Ocean Springs mayor Tom Stennis by less than 2,000 votes in the hotly-contested race for highway commissioner for the southern district.

In complete but unofficial returns, Pyron gathered 60.3 percent of the vote with a total of 133,722 to Stennis' total of 131,898.

Stennis had led in the first primary by more than 10,000 votes but could add very little to his first primary total despite his endorsement by the third place finisher in the first primary, T. H. Moody.

In live television and radio debates, the two candidates accused each other of being supported by big-time contractors.

John Ed Ainsworth, a Washington County farmer, easily outdistanced land surveyor Roy Miller in the race for land commissioner by a margin of more than 30,000 votes. In the unofficial returns, Ainsworth gathered 385,184 votes to Miller's 293,640.

Finally, George Dale, a former governor's aide to William Waller, has apparently defeated Tom Patterson with almost 60 percent of the vote in the race to fill the state commissioner's office vacated by Miss Gandy when she decided to run for lieutenant governor.

Dale will face opposition from Republican Herbert B. McGuffee, Jr. in the November general election.

Compretta beats veteran Walter J. Phillips

J. P. Compretta, a Bay St. Louis lawyer and special county prosecutor, triumphed in his second try for the democratic nomination for state representative Tuesday with his victory over former state representative attorney Walter James Phillips of Bay St. Louis.

There was no incumbent in the race, the office having been vacated by Earl "Buck" Ladner who left his position to enter the Hancock County Sheriff's race.

Unofficial totals of the second primary vote show Compretta outpolling Phillips by over 2,000 votes. The vote was Compretta, 5254, and Phillips, 3120.

Compretta carried 10 of the 48 precincts and tied with Phillips in one precinct. Of the seven precincts carried by Phillips, two were in Diamondhead and the other five were in beats one and two. Phillips showed his greatest strength in Pearlinton carrying all three boxes.

Compretta entered the second primary leading Phillips by 1800 votes, needing only 800 votes for a first primary victory. A majority of votes cast for the other four first primary contenders also went to Compretta giving him an easy victory over his opponent.

Compretta camp

Legislative choice J. P. Compretta was congratulated by parents Mr. and Mrs. Joe Compretta and Uncle Sam Compretta (right) at the law offices of Haas and Compretta

Tuesday night. Compretta defeated Attorney Walter J. Phillips to gain a freshman term in the state legislature.

Appeal planned in damage suit

Bay St. Louis Mayor Warren Carver said Tuesday the city would definitely appeal Monday's decision by U. S. District Judge Walter Nixon awarding $375,000 in damages to a New Orleans man resulting from a 1969 swimming accident which left the youth completely paralyzed.

Carver said the city would be severely handicapped by the large award if forced to pay such a large sum.

The suit filed in behalf of Jimmy Ray Warner last year asked for $2 million in damages.

Warner's suit claims the city failed to maintain a municipal pier in safe condition.

Warner, who was 16-years-old at the time of the accident, dived from the pier July 4, 1969 and struck bottom in shallow water.

Judge Nixon ruled the city of Bay St. Louis was 50 percent responsible for the accident.

Carver said local attorney Walter James Phillips had been retained to file the appeal for the city.

If forced to pay the damages, Carver said, the city might possibly have to levy two mills over 20 years based on the current city's assessment.

NASA moves ERL to make room for Navy

NASA officials indicated last week that the relocation of 110 employees of the Earth Resources Laboratories from the National Space Technology Laboratories to the NASA computer center in Slidell is, at present, the only adjustment that will be necessary to make room for the 1200 member work force of the Navy Oceanographic Office.

Last week it was announced that the Earth Resources Laboratories which presently occupy the large office building on the NSTL site, building 1100, would be moved in December to the Slidell center. It is planned that the Navy will occupy building 1100 as well as a proposed building to be constructed on the site.

"The NASA decision to provide for the movement of ERL to Slidell is to provide for the smoothest possible integration of all the agencies we have out here," said acting manager of NSTL, Henry Auter. "Some think that when the Navy comes in they will just push the other folks out, but that is just not true. It is not the stated policy of either the Navy or NASA to do that."

Auter said that he did not believe that any other agency presently at the site would be required to move because of the Navy move to the site. He explained that in order to provide the minimum floor-space requirement for the Navy workers, it was necessary to designate building 1100 for their use, and, he said, there was no other suitable place on the site for ERL to move to.

"Actually, the movement of ERL to Slidell is another step in the consolidation of that facility," Auter said. "Any move, even if it is from one part of a building to another, is inconvenient, but in this case it was necessary."

ERL was the first environment-oriented agency to set up offices at NSTL following the shut-down of space operations in 1970. It is also the largest employer presently on the site with a payroll of approximately $2.5 million.

Auter indicated that the move to Slidell may be an advantage as far as the individual employees are concerned. He said he hoped most would not have to change their residences and that for many the move would even shorten the commuting time. "As far as the agency itself is concerned," Auter said, "We do not want anyone to get the impression that it is being 'thrown to the wolves.' We will do everything possible to see that the agency maintains its prestige and that it can continue its operation smoothly."

Auter stressed that NASA welcomed the Navy move to NSTL and said that it was another step toward the goal of total utilization of the facility.

"As we work toward total utilization, some may have to give up some luxuries—they had when the space was not being totally utilized," the acting manager said. "We are now a multi-purpose facility, and it will be expected that as individual agencies complete their projects, they will leave and others will take their place. But the end result will be a greater stability for the facility itself for a longer period of time."

Plans for the move of the Navy to NSTL were announced last week by Commander Bruce Matthews, who is already at the NSTL site acting for Rear Admiral J. Edward Snyder, Jr., commander of the move.

The Naval Ocean Research and Development Activity (NORDA) will be the first of two Navy organizations to relocate to NSTL. NORDA is expected to be fully operational by the end of the year with a staff of about 250.

The Naval Oceanographic Office, the second organization to relocate, will not complete its move until the summer of 1977. Some advance groups from NOO will start moving in late October of this year. The first NORDA group will arrive during September.

"The exact number of employees who will transfer from the Washington area will not be known until early October," said Matthews.

"This is to allow time for personnel who have received notices of the transfer of their positions to exercise their legal rights in deciding whether to accept relocation. A later date general recruiting will begin to fill any vacancies that may result. It is anticipated that there will be technical, administrative and clerical positions available. These jobs will be widely advertised in the Louisiana-Mississippi Gulf Coast area."

Matthews said he could be contacted at 601-688-3501.

Army Reserve School

offers evening classes

The 3390th U.S. Army Reserve School begins its 20th year of service to Army National Guard and Reserve officers on the Gulf Coast with evening classes Sept. 11 at the USAR Center in Gulfport.

Courses expected to be offered include the Branch Officer Advanced Course, the Command and General Staff Course, the Industrial College of the Armed Forces Seminar, and the National Security Management Course.

Lt. Col. Alton R. Lefebvre, instructor detachment commander in Gulfport, said that the school could tailor a course of instruction to meet the training needs of almost any unit or individual officer.

"These courses are not only required for promotion," Lefebvre said, "but also fulfill the need for continuous exposure to changing ideas and new techniques which the 'One-Army' concept exemplifies."

Although classes begin Sept. 11, the enrollment period for the 1975-76 school year extends through Sept. 18. Interested officers may contact the USAR Center at 33rd Ave. and 28th St., Gulfport, or phone 864-2816.

MARY ANN MOBLEY

Mary Ann Mobley to lead Sight Saving month

Mary Ann C. Mobley, efforts to raise funds, and Mississippi's first Miss America, is serving as the 1975 Sight Saving Chairman, according to Harold Green, Jackson, president of the Mississippi Society for the Prevention of Blindness.

"We're No. 1 in many good things in Mississippi," Miss Mobley said, but we need to change Mississippi's record of being No. 1 in the number of blind persons and the number of new cases of blindness annually according to our population.

Special letters appealing for public support are being mailed this month by the Mississippi Society. A Mint

Green Tea at the Governor's Mansion Sept. 25 is planned as a special event. Carroll Waller, Mississippi's First Lady, will join Mary Ann as co-hostess for this first fund-raising event of the Mississippi Society.

Mary Ann won the title of Miss America in Atlantic City in 1958.

In one of her many movie roles she co-starred with another Mississippian, Elvis Presley, in "Girl Happy." She has also done numerous television dramas and talk shows.

This summer she and her actor-husband, Gary Collins, were seen on stage in "On a Clear Day." Her most recent stage credits include "Kiss Me Kate," "Cabaret," "The King and I," "Hello Dolly" and others.

Mary Ann currently lives in Los Angeles with her husband and their daughter, Mary Clancy.

Miss Mobley's own daughter had a "lazy eye" problem which is now corrected. Screening for such vision defects in children is done by the Mississippi Society.

Bay ranks second in building permits

Bay St. Louis ranked second only to Gulfport among the five Mississippi Coast municipalities in dollar value of building permits issued in the month of July.

According to figures released by the Gulf Coast office of the Mississippi Research and Development Center, a total of $219,810 in building permits were issued during the month in Bay St. Louis.

Gulfport reached a total of $593,155. Other coast cities following Gulfport and Bay St. Louis were Ocean Springs with $335,294, Pascagoula with $255,053, Biloxi with $142,027, Long Beach with $129,567, Moss Point with $118,813, Pass Christian with $72,100 and Waveland with $22,030.

A report from the office of Bay St. Louis Mayor Warren Carver using the 1970 population figures shows the per capita value of building permits as follows: Bay St. Louis, $52.10; Pass Christian, $24.54; Long Beach, $21; Gulfport, $17.12; Pascagoula, $9.39; Ocean Springs, $8.47; Waveland, $7.18; Moss Point, $5.15 and Biloxi, $2.93.

Pictorial history nears completion

Presses will soon be rolling on the first pictorial history of the Mississippi Governor's Mansion.

This special pictorial history has evolved from the work Dr. David Sansing of Ole Miss and Mrs. Carroll Waller have done toward the scholarly history to be published later this fall.

The Legislature of 1820 authorized the building of the Mansion with construction starting in 1821 and the first residents moving in in 1842. During all these years there has been no written history telling of the Mansion and its occupants although the Hugh Whites were interested in having this done during his term as Governor.

The book gives a brief history with pictures of the Mansion over the years. Former residents are fitted into their period at the Mansion. There is also a section telling of the recent restoration and the book contains color pictures of the National Historic Landmark.

The book is being published by the nonprofit Mississippi Executive Mansion Commission, Inc. and will sell for $2.

All money will go to the Mansion Commission organized earlier this year to raise funds for the perpetual preservation of the Mansion. Dr. E. A. McNamee, the noted Mississippi historian who was former Director of the Department of Archives and History, serves as president of the Commission. Bankers Trust Savings and Loan Association, which Charles A. Carter serves as Board Chairman, has loaned the Commission the money to finance the printing of the book by Holiday Press of Chicago.

The 55 Bankers Trust offices located over the state will serve as distribution points where copies of the book can be bought.

Local papers, radio or television stations will carry information about when the book will be available in local areas.

Farm bureau objects to union grain boycott

Strong objections against the recent boycott of leading Russian grain purchases by the AFL-CIO and the Maritime Union were raised last week by members of the Mississippi Farm Bureau Federation.

Market reaction to the AFL-CIO and Maritime Union boycott of the free flow of agricultural exports has already penalized Mississippi soybean farmers to the tune of over $11 million, Hugh Arant, president of the Mississippi Farm Bureau Federation said Wednesday.

"This is based," Arant said, "on the USDA's Aug. 1 Mississippi soybean crop forecast of 44,000 bushels and the fact that soybean futures declined by 10 cents per bushel after the announcement that members of the longshoremen's union would not load new purchases of American grain to the Soviet Union."

American farmers stand to lose $125 million from sudden price declines for soybeans and corn. Corn futures tumbled eight cents a bushel.

"U. S. farm exports are almost solely dependent on recent payments from a default balance of payments in 1973 of $291 million to a favorable balance of payments of $229 million. In 1974 agricultural exports made a record breaking contribution of $4.5 billion to the balance of payments while the non-agricultural sector turned in a $9.2 billion deficit. In 1975 farm exports contributed more than $4 billion net," the president said.

"Unfortunately the AFL-CIO and Maritime Union are pretending to protect the American consumer's interest when in reality the boycott will have an adverse effect on agriculture and prices to the consumers will only be higher," Arant said.

State agencies join to combat encephalitis

Governor Bill Waller and officials of the State Board of Health and other agencies last week mounted a massive campaign aimed at combating the encephalitis epidemic in Mississippi.

The Governor headed an emergency meeting at the State Capitol which brought together seven state agencies which are committed to help in the project.

Waller called for "a comprehensive and coordinated effort to develop a plan to carry us through 1976" and he said that he is working to get emergency federal funds for equipment, chemicals and personnel to fight the mosquitoes which carry the disease.

Danny Murray, Public Information Officer of the State Board of Health, said that the effort will include a statewide campaign centered around citizen cooperation in controlling the mosquitoes. He said that Sept. 6, will be set aside as "Kill the Culex" day.

ETV sponsors series for under-educated

Help is "Just Around the Corner" for the 300,000

Mississippians who are under-educated.

The State Department of Education and the Mississippi Authority for Educational Television have joined forces to give Mississippi men and women a new way of learning to cope with their problems. The State Department designs the adult education curriculum and ETV produces programs that motivate the students to learn.

"Just Around the Corner" is the name of ETV's new adult education series that is designed to inform adults about budgets, insurance, grocery shopping, housing, transportation, and other topics related to their daily lives.

Test audiences in every area of Mississippi have been watching the pilot program and have given their overwhelming approval of the project, according to Tony Hewitt, associate producer in charge of evaluation.

The first 15 programs focus on two families, Joe and Louise Carter, a married couple in their early thirties with two children, and BJ and Larry Preston, newlyweds in their early twenties, all of whom have to face various consumer economic problems. Program dates and times will be announced later.

Students urged to apply for aid

Governor Waller has urged parents of students seeking financial aid to college to "explore the possibilities of the basic education opportunity grant."

Waller said that the staff of the Governor's Hotline has received calls from all over the state from persons seeking sources of financial aid for education or training.

"The basic education opportunity grant, a federally-funded program, is probably the most versatile and available form of financial aid in that it is an entitlement — not a loan," he said.

The Governor said the grants can be used for academic or vocational education and that applications for the current school year can be accepted through March 15, 1976.

"This is a great source of help for adults who never received any specialized training beyond high school and can be used for any approved training course of six months duration or longer. Half time students are also eligible," Waller said.

The Governor said that in the school year 1974-75, it is estimated that 33 percent of those eligible for the grants in Mississippi did not apply.

The Governor urged those wanting more information and an application to call the Governor's Hotline, 1-800-222-7629.

Over 350 4-H's enter state show

More than 350 young equestrians participated in the 1975 State 4-H Horse Show last week in Jackson.

Climaxing the two-day event was the announcement of the overall high point show winners by Dr. Duane Tucker, livestock specialist, Mississippi Cooperative Extension Service.

The senior and junior 4-H members who accumulated the most points during the show were Jack Warner, Jr. of Winston County and Debbie Jo Carpenter of Benton County, respectively. Owners of the high point horses were Kevin Griffin of Newton County in the senior division and Jo Anna Scott of Montgomery County in the junior division. The high point county trophy was presented to Winston County.

Jackson receives law enforcement grants

Bill Grissett, Executive Director of the Mississippi Criminal Justice Planning Division (MCJPD), has announced that a total of $152,800 in law enforcement grants have been awarded to the City of Jackson.

Grissett said the grants were awarded during a recent meeting of the Governor's Commission on Crime and Delinquency.

Grissett says the funds represent Federal Law Enforcement Assistance Administration money and do not include any state or local matching funds.

Governors urged to comment on food stamp plans

WASHINGTON -- State governors will be allowed a period of 45 days to comment on plans and amendments that are submitted by states participating in the Food Stamp Program, according to a new regulation announced by the U. S. Department of Agriculture (USDA).

The new regulation provides a 45-day opportunity for each state governor or his delegated agency to review the relationship of food stamp plans and amendments to other state plans and programs. State agencies will then send the governors' comments to USDA's Food and Nutrition Service, along with the state plans and amendments when they are submitted for approval.

The proposal is in line with requirements of Office of Management and Budget and is similar to regulations that have been adopted by other federal agencies. USDA's Food and Nutrition Service received seven comments on the regulation after it was published for a 30-day public comment period March 6. Six of those comments were in favor of the regulation, and one was not. The final regulation was published in the Federal Register of Aug. 7 and was effective immediately upon publication.

Cattle expert to study pinkeye

Dr. Frances J. Mulhern, administrator of animal and plant health inspection service of USDA, Washington, D. C., is sending an expert on pinkeye in cattle and an entomologist on the face fly problem to assist Mississippi cattlemen in evaluating and arriving at preventive measures of both problems.

As of late June the face fly has been found on cattle in Mississippi north of Interstate 20. The face fly has been incriminated as one of the stress factors associated with the cattle industry.

The flies are found around the eyes, feeding on the secretions, as well as on the blood in case of a wound. The fly is incriminated in the spread of pinkeye which may be caused by a virus or a bacteria, or both.

Pinkeye has been widely reported all over the State of Mississippi. The present known prevention of pinkeye is fly control, proper nutrition and management, and vaccination with both bacterial and viral antigens.

Treasury warns against savings bond schemes

A warning has been issued by the U. S. Department of the Treasury against participating in money-making schemes involving chain letters and U. S. Savings Bonds being promoted recently in various parts of the country.

A spokesman of the department warned that it is likely that the investment will be lost and anyone participating in the plan is subject to prosecution for violation of federal, state or local laws.

A few months ago, a number of endless-chain schemes were launched in Southern California. The intermingling organizations were active under several misleading names: "Your March of Bonds," "Inflation Defense Foundation," "Century Club," "Exclusive One Million," "Uncle Sam Investment, Inc.," and "Six-Pack Club."

In the scheme most often used, the victim became an "active member" by paying $37.50 to a "sponsor." In return, he received a membership list of 10 names and a $25 Savings Bond, recently purchased for $18.75, made payable to the first person on the list. The new "member" made two new membership lists, crossing off the top name on the original list and adding his own name at the bottom. He then purchased two $25

Bonds, payable to the person who was then first on the list. He delivered the Bond that came with the first list to the person named personally or by mail.

As a "new member," he was required to pay annual dues of $5 and to purchase membership books, at $1.50 each, to give to the two "new members" he brought into the scheme. The victim had spent $81, but was told he would recover most of his investment when he sold his two lists. He did, in fact, recover $75, if he was able to do so.

However, for one member to receive $19,200, the promised windfall, 1,024 new members would have had to join after he did, without the chain's being broken. To achieve "optimum success," the schemes required a membership of 250 times the entire population of the world.

Since the membership lists were originally prepared by the promoters, with their names and addresses or those of their associates heading the lists, the scheme would provide Bonds for the promoters long before new members reaped any harvest. The promoters of that plan used two variations, the "Six-Pack," involving lists with only six names, and the "Century Club," which used $100 Bonds, in lieu of $25 Bonds. The California Attorney General, Los Angeles County District Attorney and the Los Angeles City Attorney cooperated in the investigation, arrests and convictions of the promoters, who were held in violation of the California Penal Code concerning endless-chains and lotteries.

Rather than circulate the lists of the Bonds through the mails, those promoters relied upon meetings in private homes to further their schemes. Had the mails been used, the promoters would have been in violation of the U. S. Code, Title 18, Section 1302, the "lottery" statute, which proscribes the mailing of material concerning a lottery promotion. It establishes criminal sanctions of a $1,000 fine or imprisonment for not more than two years, or both, upon conviction. They would also have been in violation of Section 1341, the "mail fraud" statute.

Most of the "bottom-finers" involved in such schemes are relatively innocent of wrongdoing. They have no intention of perpetrating a fraudulent scheme or otherwise using the mails illegally. In addition to the promise of a dollar reward, they are often persuaded that they are being "patriotic," helping their government's Savings Bonds Program.

Over the years, the Department of the Treasury has advised the public that chain-letter schemes involving Savings Bonds do a distinct disservice to the Savings Bonds Program. Instead of encouraging individuals to develop genuine savings plans, they create the illusion that participants are both aiding their government and themselves. Even in the rare case where an individual receives a large return, it is likely that he would quickly redeem the Bonds, thereby placing a further burden on the Treasury.

Individuals who purchase Savings Bonds for such chain-letter schemes, and who discover that participation may violate certain laws and regulations, may request a refund, using Treasury Form PD-2966. This form is available at many banks; it may also be requested from the Bureau of the Public Debt, 200 Third St., Parkersburg, W. Va. 26101.

Rehabilitation causes income increase for disabled

Rehabilitation services caused the income of 6088 disabled Mississippians to multiply four and a fourth times, from $4,914,884 to $20,917,520, said John H. Webb, director of Vocational Rehabilitation.

The 1975 Fiscal report of the Vocational Rehabilitation division, State Department of Education shows that before rehabilitation 4830 of the 6088 persons earned no income. The remaining 1258 earned a total of $4,914,884. Following rehabilitation, 4574 persons were earning at an annual rate of $20,917,520. The remaining 1514 rehabilitants were housewives and unpaid family workers who had been helped to become more independent and productive, Webb said.

"In many cases, other family members who cared for the disabled persons were freed to hold jobs outside the home," Webb added.

"In many cases, other family members who cared for the disabled persons were freed to hold jobs outside the home," Webb added.

County vote heavy

Two incumbents defeated in constable races

By ANITA DINWIDDIE

Two incumbent constables were defeated in local second primary races with beat one constable Elvie Yarbrough and beat two constable Terry Tartavouille losing their bids for reelection.

A trend was also evident in many of the constable and justice of the peace races of candidates from outside areas defeating residents of Bay St. Louis and Waveland.

In beat one Yarbrough lost to challenger Peter Noto by only 35 votes. He carried five precincts to Noto's four, but Noto gained the victory with large majorities in the Clermont Harbor and Arlington boxes.

Tartavouille, a Waveland resident, was defeated by almost 200 votes by challenger Merlin Nicaise in beat two. Each candidate carried four precincts, but Nicaise gained the victory by carrying the Caesar, Flattop and Bayou Phillip boxes. Tartavouille carried all of the Waveland boxes.

Incumbent Joseph Dobson was the only candidate to be returned to office in the second primary. Dobson was elected beat four justice over Gerald Seuzeneau, a real estate agent from Bay St. Louis. Dobson collected 903 votes to 751 for Seuzeneau, carrying all but two boxes in South Bay.

In the beat five justice race Bay St. Louis attorney William Frisbie gained 925 votes to Harry Farve's 796. Farve was the only black candidate in the runoff.

Farve carried three of the city hall boxes by wide margins but was defeated in the nine other boxes in beat five.

In beat three a former justice of the peace, Nolan S.

Ladner of Bay St. Louis, was defeated in his bid for a second term by Lloyd Anderson of Perkinston. The unofficial count was Anderson, 943, and Ladner 863.

The precincts were evenly split between the two candidates with Ladner carrying all of the city precincts in North Bay and Diamondhead and Anderson defeating him soundly in the outside areas of Crane Creek, Standard and Dedeaux.

Another justice of the peace race between two challengers in beat two ended in a victory for Horatio Frierson of Flattop over E. P. "Hungry"

Exnicious of Waveland.

Miss Lola Dorothea Weston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Weston, of Pass Christian, became the bride of Edward Joseph Alpaugh, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Alpaugh, Sr. of Linwood, Pennsylvania, at the 2 p.m. nuptial mass Saturday, Aug. 16 at St. Paul's Church in Pass Christian.

Rev. John O'Brien, pastor of St. Paul's, and Rev. Arthur McInerney, St. Dominican Priory, Chicago, Illinois, officiated at the double ring ceremony. James Weston, brother of the bride and Billy Bourdin served as altar boys. Mr. Marion Knost was the lector.

Mrs. John K. McKenna, Sr. organist, of Bay St. Louis, played "Trumpet Voluntary" for the processional and "Ode to Joy" as the recessional. She accompanied Mrs. Walter Guilbault, soloist, who sang "Ich Liebe Dich", "Just for Today", "Sunrise, Sunset" and "On This Day".

Marilyn Weston, sister of the bride, sang the love theme from Romeo and Juliet.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an original empire style gown of white summer satinette fashioned with a high neckline and chapel length train. Imported Italian lace re-embroidered with seed pearls defined a sheer yoke and long tapered sleeves. Hand clipped appliques overlaid the bodice and cascaded down the front panel of the dress blending into the wide band of lace encircling the hemline. Her tiered fingertip veil of French illusion fell from a caplet trimmed with Italian lace and seed pearls. She carried a cascade of white roses, stephanotis and baby's breath.

Flower girl was Margaret Weston, niece of the bride, and Charles Weston, nephew of the bride, was ringbearer.

The attendants wore formal gowns of light blue quiana, featuring V-necklines and short cape sleeves. They wore caps covered in matching material outlined in tiny white beading with light blue veiling. They carried cascade bouquets of mixed flowers in shades of pink, blue, yellow and white. The bride's table covered in blue with an overlay of white lace, was centered with a three tiered wedding cake decorated with white spun sugar roses. The top tier was held by cherubs. Two oboe arrangements centered with the pastel colored flowers decorated each end of the table.

Satin rose bud rice bags in shades of blue and white were given to the guests by Millie and Debra Steube of Pineville.

Miss Linda Knighton of Hattiesburg, cut the cake, and Miss Jane Reid kept the guest register. Miss Lydia Kwong, of New York, Mrs. Cathy Pustay, of Long Beach, Miss Beth Bailey, of Long Beach and Miss Cynthia Bailey of Pineville, were tea girls.

Lis ends tennis odyssey on a winning note

Bay St. Louis' young tennis star, Lis Lagarde, ended her summer long tennis odyssey last week with first and second place finishes in her last two tournaments of the summer.

Lis, the 14-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lagarde, breezed through the five-day Mirror Lake Racquet Club Junior Tennis Tournament in Mobile, Alabama without dropping a set.

Miss Lagarde's closest match came in the first round when she defeated Sally Hale 6-4, 6-3. In the second round, Lis overpowered Julie Crittenden 6-1, 6-0, and then she advanced to the finals with a 6-2, 6-4 straight set victory over Beth Lawrence.

In the finals, Lis had surprising ease in disposing of the tournament's top-seeded player, Mary Grafton of Pensacola, 6-0, 6-1.

Lis then placed second in the ladies' A division of the Plantation Pines Open at Long Beach. The 14-year-old quickly became the tournament surprise as she threaded through the older competition before losing to the Keesler AFB ladies champion, Victoria Todd, in the finals 6-3, 6-1.

SPORTS

Long Beach fishing rodeo begins Friday

The fourth annual Long Beach Fishing Rodeo begins Friday morning and will continue through Labor Day. The scales will close at 7 p.m. each day with the exception of Monday when they close at 4 p.m.

Among the prizes that will be awarded will be $100 in merchandise from Kirk's Tackle Shop, which will be awarded to the angler who catches the biggest fish.

The competition will also include a junior division for 12-year-olds and below with no registration fee required. Eligible fish in the junior division include ground mullet, speckled trout, white trout, flounder, and croaker. Registration in the adult division is $3. Sporting goods stores along the Coast have the entry blanks. They can also be purchased at the rodeo.

SPORT TALK

By Charles Henderson

Q: A bet rides on this. Who's won the most Masters championships, Arnold Palmer or Jack Nicklaus? A: The two greats were tied with four Masters wins each through 1974. Palmer won early in his career, in 1958, and in 1960-62-64. Then Big Jack took over, winning in 1963-65-66, and again in 1972. Then in April of 1975 the Golden Bear nosed out Johnny Miller and Tom Weiskopf by a single stroke to don the famous Masters green coat for the fifth time. He is the top Masters champion.

Q: A follow-up question for your golfers: Who has won the most major championships (U.S. Open, British Open, PGA and Masters)? A: Through 1974, Jack Nicklaus had piled up 14 major wins, the highest total. His 1975 Masters win gave him 15 majors and 60 tour victories to that date. Through 1974 other big winners include Ben Hogan, with 9 majors in 57 tournament wins; Gary Player, 8 majors; and Arnold Palmer and Sam Snead with 7 major wins each. Those who still questioned Johnny Miller's greatness after his big year in 1974 pointed to the fact that he had only one U.S. Open as a major win. His fine 1975 Masters performance on the last two rounds silenced the critics, Miller says he'll take the wins as the come... and the winnings.

Special to The Echo
PEARL RIVER, La. — Jonage Star broke the meet record for 400 yards with a swift Class AA time of 20.975 seconds Sunday at Oak Downs.

Owned and trained by Merlin Marechal, the 14-year-old leading trainer, Jonage Star was ridden by leading jockey Ralph Shubert, who hit the century mark Sunday with six victories.

Shubert has ridden an even 100 winners during the 1975 meet at Oak Downs.

Pirates look new for season

The defending Pascagoula River Conference champion Pass High Pirates will enter the 1976 grid season with a new coaching staff, an almost new line, and a backfield full of talent.

Coach Bob Rogers, a nine-year coaching veteran from Bay Springs, Miss., takes over the reins as the Pirates' head mentor, replacing Bill Stevens, who resigned last April. Joining Rogers will be two new assistant coaches, Larry Miller of Leland and Boyd Bayles of Avon, Miss.

Coach Rogers and his aides have their work cut out for them as the Pirates lost all except one of its linemen from last year's conference champion team. The Pirates last year compiled a 9-4-1 regular season record and lost its only game of the season in a post season encounter with Stone County in the Pickle Bowl.

The Pirates strong suit will be their backfield full of lettermen which will include Aaron Swannier at quarterback and Otis Woods at fullback. Swannier is especially strong as a short yardage passer, and Woods, at 174 pounds, will be counted on to get the tough yardage for the Bucs.

Joining the Swannier-Woods combo in the backfield will be halfbacks Oren Parker, Myron Cook, Brent Jenkins, and Vernon Powell, all of whom have good speed. Jenkins will also serve as the Pirates' backup to Swannier at quarterback.

The one returning starter for the Pirates on the line is Hilton Ray, a 5-10, 185-pound offensive guard and linebacker. Coach Rogers is hoping to fill the line with several new players including Ricky Scarborough at tackle and Edward Lenoux at guard, but over all the team's size will be small.

Darel Lang, last year's conference champion in the 100-yard dash with a 10.0 clocking, will be Pass High's long distance threat at split end. Houston Doerr will return as the Pirates' starting tight end.

Defensively the pirates will have returning secondary men in seniors Oren Parker and Gerald Ellis, both of whom Coach Rogers termed as aggressive.

Paul Stewart and Aaron Swannier are battling for the place-kicking slot on the team, and Swannier and Gerald Ellis are vying for punter.

Of the 33 players on the roster, 15 are returning lettermen, a fact which Coach Rogers claims may be misleading since most of those lettermen earned their letters on the special teams.

The Pirates are preparing for the first game of the season next Friday night in Vancleave against the Bulldogs in conference action.

Hancock Hawks lose big man for the season

The Hancock North Central Hawks have lost a 280-pound senior defensive tackle in David Haas who will be out for the season with a knee injury. But even with the loss of the big man, the Hawks will still have a big line when they host the Stanislaus Rocks next week.

The loss of Haas, however, accentuates the major problem affecting the Hawks this year, lack of depth. As a result of the injury to Haas, at least six boys will be starting on both the offensive and defensive units for the Hawks. The result could mean some fourth quarter disappointments for Hawk fans as their starters tire from the double duty.

With only 29 boys on the team roster, the Rocks will, however, have a strong starting unit both offensively and defensively to compensate for the team's lack of depth.

The offense will be led by quarterback Ted Williams, a good pocket passer. Williams is one of the two returning lettermen in the Hawks' backfield. Sonny Schwartz, a 160-pound fullback who is short and quick at hitting the holes, is the other returnee.

Ilos Duckworth and Andrew Willis, both juniors who saw action last year on defense, will also carry the ball for the Hawks. Duckworth, says Coach Irvin Favre, has average speed but can elude defenders with his good moves.

Kenny Walsh, a small 130-pounder, will be at split end, and either Mark Ladner or Daron Ladner will play at the tight end position.

The Hawks' interior line will average about 180 pounds with lettermen Bobby Shubert and Kendall Ladner being joined by guards David Schwartz and Tim Durham, and center Kerwin Necaise.

Defensively, the Hawks will average 190 pounds up front, even with the loss of David Haas for the year. Larry Necaise, an aggressive nose guard, is the big man in the defense at 6-2, 225 pounds.

Also on the line will be tackles Shubert and Kendall Ladner, who are also on the offensive squad. At defensive ends, ends will be Daron Ladner and Mark Ladner, both of whom will also be going both ways for the Hawks.

Hancock North Central's linebackers, David Schwartz and Al Walsh are average size. Schwartz is 5-9, 170 pounds and Walsh is 5-9, 160 pounds.

The defensive backfield will include Sonny Schwartz and Ilos Duckworth at the corners. Both of them will also be working on offense. Kim Ladner and Pat Necaise, two average size defensive backs, will also patrol the Hawks' secondary.

Ted Williams, hitting at an average of 30 yards a boot, will be the team's punter, and Daron Ladner will do the place-kicking. Two juniors who should see a lot of action for the Hawks are fullback Wesley Moran and tight end Dexter Shaw. The two boys, said Coach Favre, have been coming on strong lately in practice.

No sweat

Ole Miss Rebels dancing to the shuffle

UNIVERSITY, Miss. — In preparation for their September 6 date with Baylor in Waco, the Ole Miss Rebels football team is dancing to the shuffle with many players finding themselves relocated.

Over a dozen members of the returning varsity contingent are having to learn new assignments and responsibilities. The major adjustments have involved sophomore Curtis Weathers and senior Dan Muff.

Weathers, the number one tight end throughout 1974, returned to his old station this week after a spring tour at split end. A year ago he was the Rebels' second leading receiver with 16 receptions for 227 yards. Weathers suffered a shoulder injury in the Tennessee contest but showed no ill effects in off-season drills.

Muff also returned to his old beat, the defensive secondary. Currently, he's at the right corner slot, though he lettered on the left side in '74. Late in the spring, he was returned to offense where he had divided time in '73.

Rocks won't fly

The passing, says Jones, is coming along fine, but that the receivers Paul Brown, Mike Graeber and quarterback Weirhaven gotten the timing down yet.

Two sophomores that Jones feels will see considerable action during the season are linebacker and offensive guard Paul Bertucci and linebacker Mike Cure.

Only one player is out of action for the Rocks, fullback Ernie Stadman who is suffering from a badly pulled groin muscle. Coach Jones added that two or three other players are presently working with minor injuries.

But the returning starter at right corner, soph Johny Hatch, suffered a shoulder dislocation in the spring, an injury yet to heal properly.

Muff charted 19 tackles with 14 assists a year ago and will team with junior starter George Nasit of Vicksburg at the other corner back post. Sophomore Robert Fabris drew a transfer from offense to defense, moving from flanker, where he enjoyed a promising spring, to strong safety.

Both played prominent roles in the Red front wall last year. Pittman an occasional starter with Johnson, a top relief ace.

And sophomore Randy Rucker was moved from strong safety in the secondary to cornerback on the left side. Rucker was a 1974 redshirt.

On offense, primary reshuffling has developed in line responsibilities.

Sophomores Dennis Watkins and Jeff Weber are now positioned at center. Watkins spent last spring at strong tackle while Weber was at tight guard. They are currently fighting it out with returning starter John MacNeill and his backup Reggie Pace.

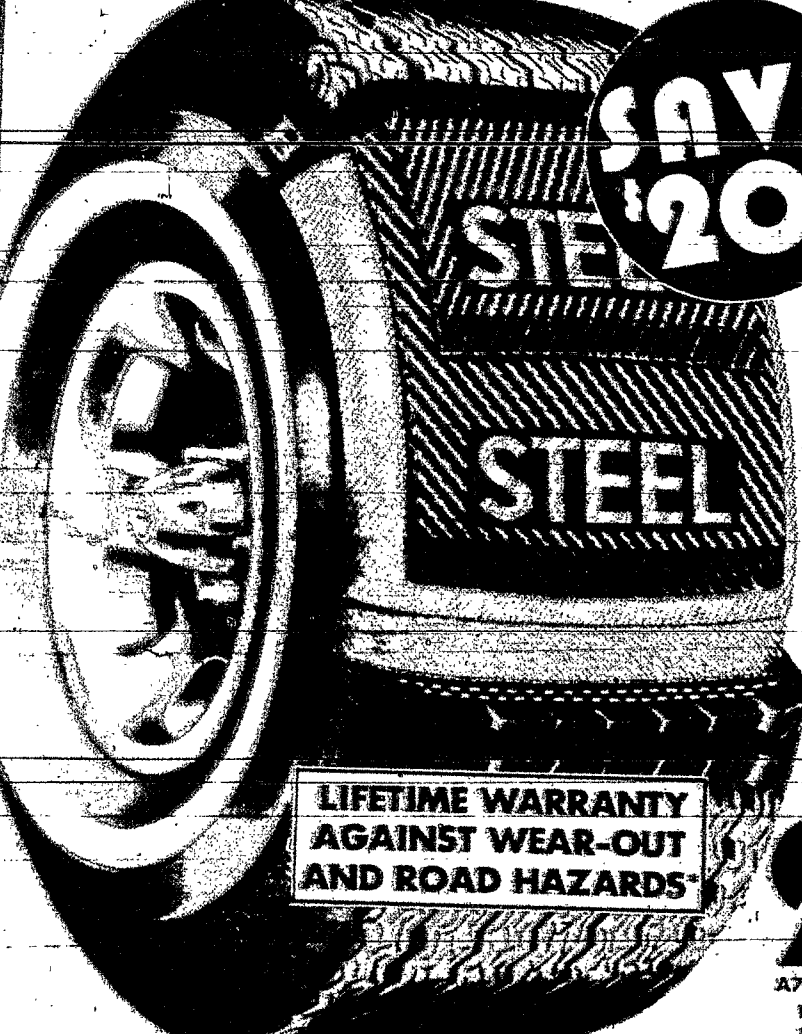

Tackle Keith Kellum was moved from the tight side to the strong side in support of veteran Dick Lawrence. Kellum was a '74 freshman.

Added depth in the offensive line is expected as a result of the transfer of three experienced players, all expected to contribute heavily.

Split guard Roy Grant and tight guard Chuck Kota both came to Ole Miss from Tampa after the Spartans dropped football in early 1975. Tom Jennings, a graduate of Northwest Junior College at Senatobia, is also in the thick of the fight at tight tackle. Grant, Kota and Jennings are all juniors.

Cooper revealed Tuesday that junior defensive end John Buchanan had been medically advised to give up football. Buchanan, who lettered as an alternate last fall, was bounced from spring training with ligament damage in his right ankle. He had twice before undergone knee surgery.

Tigers work on specialty units

The Bay High Tigers football team started its third week of practice Monday with Coach Woody Allison and his aides working on the specialty team units.

At present the punting game appears to be the troublesome spot. Coach Allison is looking at two possible players to fill that slot, Bill Ginn and David Turcotte.

Something that has come around for Coach Allison is the work of some of the lower classmen who are hungry for positions on the starting team. Two sophomores that Allison singled out as deserving notice are center Kenny Durbin and guard Jesse Schwartz.

Schwartz, however, along with Ginn, has been sick and has missed practice the last couple of days. Clarence Piazza, who was out last week with a groin injury, was back in training this week, practicing on his kicking game. Coach Allison is counting on Piazza to do the team's place kicking chores.

Charlie Ainsworth, a center, has also been lost to the Tigers for a few days with ankle problems.

Ginn, who Coach Allison is hoping can fill the shoes of Mike Magee at quarterback, has the ability to throw the long ball with accuracy. Allison is quick to add, however, that Ginn has a soft touch with the ball that helps his receivers.

Among those who will be targets for the Tigers' offense will be the wide receivers. Lee Morris, the fastest of the lot, and probably be the long target, and David Turcotte, who has the ability to get open, will be on the receiving end of many short gains.

The Tigers will not attempt to fly all year, but will try to establish a running game that will keep the defenses honest. The four backs, all returning lettermen, will probably see an equal amount of action as Allison will try to mix up his offensive attack.

Lee Morris, the fastest of the four in the 40-yard dash, will probably be the team's long threat, along with Chris Johnson.

Mark Thomas and Clarence Piazza will be counted on to get the tough yardage in close.

The Tigers will have small linebackers (the biggest of them weighs 150 pounds), but Allison says that all three of them, Wilfred Parker, Santo Saucier, and Keith Starita, are quick off the line.

Lettermen David Landon and Geoffrey Reed will see a lot of action on both the offensive and defensive lines for the Tigers.

Bay High will open its 1975 grid season next week at home against the Stone Tomcats. The Tomcats last year went undefeated as they rolled to a

BWYC Backwash

BOB BOB ROUND ROBIN - Marc Eagan won the Bob Bob Trophy for finishing at the top in Bay Waveland's Lipton Elimination Round Robin series last weekend. The six top skippers for 1975 battled it out on the race course through heavy rain and wind squalls Saturday and Sunday.

Eagan won the first race, then gave up the lead temporarily to Bubby Eagan, who won the second race. Woody Santa Cruz came on strong to take an early lead in the third race, which he held to the finish. Marc Eagan came back to win the next two races, insuring his victory in the series even before the final race. Woody Stieffel, in fifth position after the 4th race made a late show of strength by finishing second and first in the last two races of the series, overtaking Bubby Eagan and Buzzy Heausler for second overall.

Final Standings:
Marc Eagan, crew Ed Turpess and Chris Tropani - 12th points
Woody Stieffel, crew Chris and Ann Stieffel - 10th points
Bubby Eagan, crew Ed Stieffel and Mary Kensington (Kay Kensington, 2nd) - 24th

BALE TEE RIGGS - A fantastic spread of delicious hors-d'oeuvres were served at last Saturday's informal cocktail party held at the Bales to honor the evening Vice Commodore and Mrs. Maurice Eagan, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Boshardt, Mr. and Mrs. Sammie Eagan, Mr. and Mrs. John Flath, and Mr. and Mrs. Allen Cline.

WALLBURY SAILFEST - Bay Waveland members are proud that the 1975 Wallbury SailsFest for the Men's North American Sailing Championship will be held at BWYC in Bay St. Louis, Sept. 10 and 11. There is still time to volunteer for an active part in hosting this national event. Any member wishing to offer their talents or services should call Harry Chapman, Race Committee Chairman, or the person just above him.

LABOR DAY - The youth club will be open Labor Day for those members who are not attending the Lipton Regatta.

By L.S. (Doc) Elliott

This week a little better fishing news is available. There are still a few afternoon showers, but they are light and don't affect fishing too much, especially fresh water fishing, bass and perch. This week the tides have been falling in the afternoons which makes fly fishing perfect.

Pearl River has receded to its normal banks after overflowing and the water is clearing rapidly. During the next week and on, fresh water fishing should be excellent in the mighty Pearl and its tributaries.

Better salt water fishing has been reported with specks, red fish, flounders and other salt water fish being caught. Even hard crabs fishing has improved. They are beginning to give.

Just recently Alden Mauffray and his fishing partners stayed two days in the Louisiana marsh. They returned home with about 400 specks, reds and other salt water fish, according to Alden.

Spent the past week end at Leesville, La. with my son Luke, Pat Duff and M.F. Cass from Hattiesburg. Had a fine time.

We caught plenty red fish, some speckles, some sheepshead and various other salt water fish.

We stayed in a trailer as guests of Luke. Leesville is about 90 miles from New Orleans down on Highway No. 1 out of Raceland.

A long trip but well worth it. Talk about hard crabs could have caught one hundred in nothing flat. Were catching them on our casting rods regularly.

The reds weren't too big but it was real fun bringing 'em in. Hooked a few large ones that broke our tackle. If you want to do some real fishing make a trip to Leesville. Plenty of everything, tourist courts, eating places and a fine bunch of people, plus launching ramps etc.

Met some folks I haven't seen in about six years. One of them is Boudreaux who owns Boudreaux's Motel and filling station. The motel is out of this world. Total electric kitchenette apts. Wall to wall carpeting and plenty fishing. A wonderful place to spend a real vacation.

Boudreaux's grandson from Galliano enrolled this week at St. Stanislaus. He is Guldros Gruest.

Crip Broussard of Leesville is to go fishing with. Was a pleasure seeing you again, Crip.

SPORTSMAN OF THE WEEK - Bob Williamson does both fresh and salt water fishing. He loves to catch king mackerel. Bob says there's nothing more fun than having a bass on a fly rod. He should know, he gets his share of the big ones. Recently he and Leo Bankston of Baton Rouge caught 22 Spanish mackerels and two king mackerels, weighing 18 and 20 pounds.

Was quite a treat seeing Harry A. Hinkkanen who was down from Detroit, Michigan. He was visiting his son, Greg of Waveland, his family, and a lot of friends in the Bay.

Visited the Kiln Bait Shop in Kiln, Miss. the other day.

Mary T. McLaughlin is the owner. For you folks who do still fishing at this bait shop you can get live crickets, and minnows or red worms any time. Also fishing and hunting licenses. A convenient place for fishermen, I'll say.

A mighty good gadget is a weed master for outboard motors. It can be used for going through grass. No more cussing. And it saves a lot of trouble.

About this time of the year sportsmen's thoughts turn to hunting. Below are the hunting dates for Dove, Teal Ducks, Woodcock and Snipe.

Dove - Sept. 20 - Oct. 12
Nov. 3 - 30
Dec. 20 - Jan. 12
Teal Ducks - Sept. 13 - Sept. 21

Woodcock - Dec. 13 - Feb. 15
Snipe - Dec. 13 - Feb. 15
Cut this out and put it in your wallet, a good thing to refer to.

Did you know that when deheading shrimp if you will pick off part of the head and feelers it can be fried and will taste like soft crabs. Try it, you will like it.

Mississippi supervisors hold annual convention

Three nationally-known personalities, two of them Mississippians, will be among speakers Aug. 28, 29 and 30 for the Mississippi Association of Supervisors' 46th Annual Convention at the Sheraton-Biloxi Motor Inn of Biloxi.

Paul Harvey, whose radio and television commentaries are heard daily across the country, will address a luncheon meeting Aug. 30. Well-known humorist Jerry Clower of Yazoo City, MCA recording star, will speak at an Aug. 29 luncheon meeting.

Paul Ott Carruth of Dixie Springs, singer-composer and wildlife conservationist, will be featured at the association's dinner meeting Aug. 29. Governor William Waller will address the group's final session Aug. 30.

The program officially begins the morning of Aug. 28. Speaking then will be Dr. W. M. Best, Director, Mississippi Extension Service, Mississippi State University. Afternoon speakers Aug. 29 include Bernard F. Hillenbrand, Executive Director, National Association of Counties; Jephtha Barber, Farmers' Home Administration; Rep. John Pearson of Rosedale and Sen. John William Powell of Liberty.

Speaking Aug. 30 at the Prayer Breakfast will be Dr. Johnny Lee Taylor, Pastor, First Baptist Church in Grenada. Music will be furnished by Julian Prince, Superintendent of McComb City Schools; invocation by Rev. Edward DeWeese, Pastor, Centenary Methodist Church, McComb; accompaniment by Mrs. Ronnie Smith of McComb. Speaking at the General Session will be State Auditor Hampton King, Attorney General A. F. Sumner, Frank Moore, state aid engineer and Horace Kerr, Mississippi Council on Aging. Music for the Saturday Night Banquet will be furnished by the Milltones. Highlighting the Friday luncheon will be a Humphreys County catfish dinner. New Association officers will be presented before the convention closes Aug. 30. Sam N. Alford of McComb is the MASA outgoing president.

Exam scheduled for administrator

The Merit System Council announces an unannounced examination for District Administrator for District X-B (George, Hancock, Harrison, Jackson, Pearl River, and Stone Counties) with headquarters in Gulfport.

The District Administrator is responsible for planning, coordinating and directing the non-medical activities of the health district, including personnel, property and fiscal management. Applicants may qualify by holding a Master's degree in business, public, personnel, education or hospital administration and three years supervisory or managerial experience involving planning, budget preparation, training and personnel management, and public relations. Two additional years of the experience may be substituted for the Master's degree. A college transcript must be submitted to the Merit System office. Applications may be obtained from the county health departments or by writing the Merit System Council, P. O. Box 1700, Jackson, Mississippi 39205. Closing date for receiving applications is September 5, 1975.

Fighting it out

Bay High linemen battle it out in their preseason preps as coach Woody Alliston looks on. The Tigers open their 1975 season next week at home against Stone.

Wildlife group gives "slob" award to pet abandoners

The National Wildlife Federation has decided to award the 1975 slob of the year award to the family that shutters its summer home and drives back to the city leaving its pets behind. Household pets, mostly dogs and cats, are being abandoned by the tens of thousands this year, the NWF reports. Some are being dumped at country crossroads by owners who can no longer afford the sky-high price of pet food. Others are turned loose when their owners move into new apartments that ban pets.

Whatever the cause, the owners usually rationalize that it is more "humane" to abandon a pet than to turn it into an animal shelter. Actually, the Wildlife Federation points out, they are creating a problem rather than solving one.

Household pets, cast loose to fend for themselves, must turn wild in order to survive. And these pets, particularly wild dogs running in packs, are a menace to humans, to domesticated animals, and even to wildlife.

They can kill as many as 5,000 head of cattle in just one state in a single year, as they did in Georgia three years ago. They can kill household pets, goats, sheep, and horses. And they can maim or even kill children, as many suburban police forces have learned in recent years.

Pets turned predators also take a toll of wildlife. These dogs learn to pick off pheasants, baby rabbits, and other small mammals. Deer are especially prone to attack by dog packs in winter because the dogs can run on top of the snow crust while deer cannot. In Pennsylvania alone more than 600 whitetail deer were killed by dogs last winter.

Overhanging all these unpleasant statistics is an even worse prospect, the threat of a rabies epidemic. The lifespan of abandoned dogs and cats is estimated at less than two years, but in that time most manage to produce a litter or two, according to NWF, and their offspring never receive rabies shots.

Loan available for mobile homes

"Housing relief is in sight for many Mississippians living in rural areas and small towns," according to Harold Patrick of Corinth, president of the Mississippi Mobile Home

Patrick explained that although Congress authorized the Farmers Home Administration to guarantee mobile home loans last year, FmHA has been slow in completing preparation of the new loan guaranty regulations. He stated that he recently contacted the Mississippi Congressional Delegation on behalf of the Mobile Home Association and urged them to speed up FmHA.

"I received encouraging replies from several of our Congressmen and Senators and I was advised by Senator James Eastland that we may expect publication of new FmHA regulations in the next 60 to 90 days. This should alleviate part of the housing shortage problem now being experienced in the State," said Patrick.

"This new FmHA program is urgently needed to increase the ability of our citizens to secure low cost housing," said Patrick. "Mobile homes offer the only practicable solution to housing the thousands of low to medium income families in our State," he added.

Welfare office thanks Camp supporters

The Hancock County Welfare Department expressed its appreciation this week for community support received for the United Way Day Camp for underprivileged children of Hancock County.

Camp coordinator, Mrs. Karen Frederick said, "The support from local business and community volunteers was tremendous. The kids had a great time and it is all due to the volunteers and the effort extended by local government and business."

Mrs. Frederick acknowledged the donations and support of the following individuals and organizations: Mayor Warren Carver, Mayor John Longo, the Hancock County Board of Supervisors, the Hancock County Board of Education, the First Missionary Baptist Church, Coastal Electric Company, Golden Flake Potato Chip Company, Frito-Lay Potato Chip Company, Food Discount Center, Winn Dixie, National Food Store, A & P Food Store, Bobbie Ann's Bakery, Dixie Bakery, Super Rich Doughnut Shop, Home Economist Norine Barnes and the Hancock County Welfare employees.

The camp director was Altraizer Acker. He was supported by a staff of 20 volunteers representing all communities in the county.
